Clarification of News Report

We refer to the letter of the PSE, asking us to clarify or confirm today the quoted statements below in relation to the following news article entitled "MacroAsia, China firm miss Sangley filing anew" posted in BusinessWorld (Online Edition) on September 22, 2020. The article reported in part that:

"MACROASIA CORP. and its partner Chinese firm are again asking the Cavite government to give them more time to complete the final requirements for the $10-billion Sangley Point International Airport after they missed the deadline, the provincial governor said.

'They are waiting for a two-week extension,' Cavite Gov. Juanito Victor 'Jonvic' C. Remulla told BusinessWorld in a phone message on Monday, when asked if the consortium was able to submit the post-qualification documents on Sept. 9.

Lucio C. Tan-led MacroAsia and its partner China Communications Construction Co. Ltd. (CCCC) were given until Sept. 9 to submit the lacking documents in view of the ongoing coronavirus pandemic.

We confirmed that MacroAsia Corporation and our partner China Communications Construction Co. Ltd. (CCCC) have submitted a request for extension until normal commercial air travel between China and Philippines is resumed.
