

Notice to the Public

We wish to clarify that Macro Asia Equity Holdings Corporation and MacroAsia Corporation are entirely separate and independent entities. There is no connection, affiliation, or relationship between the two companies regarding ownership, management, or business activities. Likewise, the Directors and Officers of MacroAsia Corporation are not in any way related or have any affiliation with Macro Asia Equity Holdings Corporation and its Directors.

Furthermore, we would like to inform the public that MacroAsia Corporation does not solicit investments from the public, except through official channels such as trading activities conducted on the Philippine Stock Exchange. Any investment opportunities presented outside of these official channels are not endorsed or authorized by MacroAsia Corporation.

For more information about MacroAsia Corporation, please contact us through info@macroasiacorp.com or visit our website at <https://macroasiacorp.com>.

We appreciate your attention to this important matter and encourage you to verify all investment-related information through the official and legitimate channels provided.

Thank you for your support and cooperation.